

PRO LINE

PRO LINE power window modules were developed to perform complete automation of the original power windows (OEM) of vehicles, ensuring more comfort and security.

They are hundreds of models to all brands and vehicles in the market. They count on plug and play harness and specific electronics for each vehicle.

Automotive power windows can pose a serious threat to children and pets. Risks range from injuries, breaking of bones and even deaths due to suffocation caused by crushing.

More than 100 deaths of children caused by suffocation on power windows have been reported worldwide.

TURY anti-crushing protection technology is patented internationally, under number PI 1103650-8 A2, by the INP, and comply with all international security rules like the USA TP-118-06, 74/60/EEC and CONTRAN 468/13.

Function that performs the automatic opening and closing of the windows through the original remote control or alarms activations.

Function that performs the automatic opening and closing of the windows, through the activating switches by one-touch pattern.

Safety function that guarantees protection against crushing, according to international vehicle safety rules.

The products count on original connectors that make installation easier and preserve the vehicles original characteristics.

Function that keeps the switches powered for 1 minute after the ignition key is turned off or whenever the vehicle door is open.

Function that avoids the improper automatic closing of the power windows through activation of the driver's door electric locks internal control or hazard light.

Consumption in Sleep Mode (stand by) less than 1mA.

In this catalogue, you will find the correct power window module for your vehicle.

